ATTESTATION BY EMPLOYERS USING ALIEN CREWMEMBERS FOR LONGSHORE ACTIVITIES AT U.S. PORTS

IMPORTANT: READ CAREFULLY BEFORE COMPLETING FORM

An employer may file an attestation only when there is no collective bargaining agreement in effect in the local port covering at least 30 percent of the number of individuals employed in performing longshore work. Submit the completed original Form ETA 9033 along with two copies of the form and two sets of accompanying documentation. Attestations must be received by the Employment and Training Administration, Office of Foreign Labor Certification, no later than 14 days prior to the first performance of the longshore activity unless the employer is claiming an unanticipated emergency. Attestations must be submitted to the Office of Foreign Labor Certification, 200 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Room C4312, Washington, D.C. 20210.

To knowingly furnish any false information in the preparation of this form and any supporting documentation thereto, or aid, abet or counsel another to do so is a felony, punishable by 10,000 fine or five years in the penitentiary, or both (18 U.S.C. 1001). Other penalties apply as well to fraud and misuse of this immigration document (18 U.S.C. 1546) and to perjury with respect to this form (18 U.S.C. 1546 and 1621).

Print legibly in ink or use a typewriter. Sign and date one form in original signature. Citations below to "regulations" are citations to the identical provisions at 20 CFR Part 655, Subparts F and G, and at 29 CFR Part 506, Subparts F and G.

Item 1. Name of Company. Enter full legal name of business, firm or organization, or if an individual, enter name used for legal purposes on documents.

Item 2. Address of Company. Self Explanatory.

Item 3. Telephone Number. Include area code or international calling code.

Item 4. Name of Chief Executive Officer. Self explanatory.

Item 5. Name of U.S. Agent. Self Explanatory

Item 6. Address of Agent. This address must be in the U.S.

Item 7. Telephone Number. Include fax number, if available.

Item 8. Employer Attestation. In order to be eligible to use alien crewmembers for longshore activities at a U.S. port, an employer must attest that there is no collective bargaining agreement in effect in the local port covering at least 30 percent of individuals employed in performing longshore work. An employer is not required to submit documentation to support this condition. An employer must also attest to the conditions listed in elements(a) through (c). The attestation will only be accepted for filing if the required documentation supporting these elements is attached to the form ETA 9033. See § 510(d) through (f) of the regulations for guidance on the documentation that must be attached to the Form ETA 9033 to support each of the elements.

Item 8(a) Prevailing Practice. The employer must attest that it is the prevailing practice to use alien crewmembers for a particular activity of longshore work at U.S. port where the employer intends to employ alien crewmembers. The employer must include the date of the first performance of the longshore activity. If claiming an unanticipated emergency, the appropriate box must be checked. The employer must also include the name of the port, and the city and state in which it is located. Longshore work is defined as activity relating to (1) loading of cargo, (2) unloading of cargo, (3) operation of cargo-related equipment, and (4) handling of mooring lines on the dock when a vessel is made fast or let go. For each activity, the employer must check either the Yes " or No" box, depending on whether the employer intends to perform such activity. The employer must attach documentation to support each activity it intends to perform under this attestation element. See § 510(d) for detailed explanation.

Item 8(b). No strike or Lockout; No Intention or Design to Influence Bargaining Representative Election. The employer must attest that, at the time of submitting the attestation, there is not a strike or lockout in the course of labor dispute covering the employer's activity, and that it will not use alien crewmembers during a strike or lockout after filing the attestation. The employer must also attest that the employment of such aliens is not intended or designed to influence an election for a bargaining representative for workers in the local port. The employer must attach documentation to support this attestation element. See § 510(f) for detailed explanation.

Item 8(c). Notice of filing. The employer must attest that at the time of filing the attestation, notice of filing has been provided to the bargaining representative of the longshore workers in the local port, or, where there is no such bargaining representative, notice of filing has been provided to longshore workers employed at the local port through posting in conspicuous locations and through other appropriate means. The employer must check the appropriate box under 8 ( c ). The employer must documentation to support this attestation element. See § 510(f) for detailed explanation.

Item 9. Declaration of Employer. One copy of this form must bear the original signature of the chief executive Officer (or the chief executive officer's designee) unless filing by facsimile transmission. See § 510(c)(1) of the regulations if filing by facsimile transmission. By signing this form, the chief executive officer is attesting to the conditions listed in item 8(a) through (c) and to the accuracy of the information provided elsewhere on the form and in supporting documentation. False statements are subject to federal criminal penalties, as stated above.

If the attestation bears the necessary entries of information and documentation, the Department of Labor may accept the attestation for filing and shall document such acceptance on each of the three Form ETA 9033's submitted. A copy of the attestation form indicating the Department's acceptance, or notification of nonacceptance, will be returned to the employer. The employer may then use alien crewmembers for longshore work at the port for which this attestation has been accepted in accordance with the Department of Homeland Security regulations, unless the Department subsequently acts to suspend or invalidate the attestation.

A copy of this attestation, along with accompanying documentation, will be available for public inspection at the Office of Foreign Labor Certification, 200 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Room C4312, Washington, D.C. 20210.
